The Penn-Mar Radio Club

The Club meets in Hanover, PA on Thursday evenings at 7:30 pm, the second Thursday of each month being the regular monthly business meeting. All meetings are held at the Midway Volunteer Fire Dept. located at 202 Linden Ave, Hanover, PA 17331. The remaining meetings are what we like to call "Tech Sessions", but are informal gatherings which spark various broad discussions that occasionally contain technical information. Specific subject "Tech Sessions" are typically announced in advance. The Club invites licensed amateur radio operators, and others interested in amateur radio, electronics or computers to stop by and visit and even consider joining the Club.

South Mountain Radio Amateurs (SMRA)

The South Mountain Radio Amateurs, Inc. (SMRA) is a 501(c)(3) non-profit group of amateur radio operators dedicated to community service and emergency communications within Cumberland County and the surrounding area in Central Pennsylvania since 1976. We operate and maintain repeaters and packet nodes using the callsign N3TWT as well as support the Cumberland County Office of Emergency Preparedness and the Cumberland County Chapter of the American Red Cross as a source of onsite communications in the event of an emergency. We participate in emergency drills for Three Mile Island and provide the community with communications for bicycle races, parades and other events. You're invited to attend one of our monthly meetings held at the Cumberland County Office of Emergency Preparedness, which is located in the basement of the Cumberland County Prison. Our meetings are on the third Tuesday of each month at 7pm. Give a shout on one of our repeaters and we can talk you in.
